No.880/GAD dated 15th June 1920.

1. Permanent Vacancies. There are 12 permanent vacancies including those sanctioned for Magistrates. Against these 12 appointments, acting, sub-protem and provisionally permanent appointments have already been made, leaving no places for others to be appointed permanently to the grade, unless some of the acting men are reverted.

2. Provisionally permanent appointments. There are 12 permanent Assistant Commissioners on other duty excluding the appointments of Efficiency Audit and Assistant to Census Superintendent held by Messrs. A. V. Ramanathan and M.S.Ramachandra Rao, in whose places provisionally permanent appointments can be made. Against these ~~10~~ 9 have already been appointed provisionally permanent and there remains therefore only 3 such vacancies to be filled in. These are due to Messrs. T. Lakshminarasimha Rao, D. Sreenivasa Iyengar and A.K.Syed Taj Peeran, all of whom were appointed provisionally permanent Senior Assistant Commissioners from 11th May 1920 and the vacancies exist therefore from that date.
